About Us

What is TreeBristol?

An old adage says 'The best time to plant a tree is 30 years ago, the next best time to plant a tree is today!'. We want to plant a new generation of trees across Bristol by 2015. This will bring immediate benefits to people who live and work in Bristol and leave a legacy for future generations.

TreeBristol aims to plant 10,000 trees across Bristol's parks, open spaces, public housing areas, highway verges and streets. This includes replacement of trees we have to remove due to death, disease or damage, and also finding new sites across Bristol in greatest need of more trees.

How You Can Help

TreeBristol is committed to planting more trees but our resources are limited. We work with partners such as the Forest of Avon and we seek support from local residents, community groups and business.

Sponsor tree planting - give a gift that grows, provide a living memorial or make a contribution for more trees in your neighbourhood.

Join in - take part in our tree planting events. They're great fun and incredibly rewarding. No experience is necessary and all tools are provided.

We are currently developing a range of business sponsorship packages, full details of which will be available on this website later in the year. For further information at this time please email the TreeBristol Officer or telephone 0117 352 5638.
