About Us

If you love to dance, act and sing, then Theatretrain is the place for you. We offer high quality training in the performing arts for young people between the ages of 6-18. Every year you will have the opportunity to perform either locally, or in a prestigious West End Theatre, such as the London Palladium, Dominion and the Royal Albert Hall. Our teaching staff are enthusiastic, experienced and inspirational to help you get the most out of every class to develop an understanding of how theatre works but we also have lots of fun while we learn to help build confidence and life skills. Call today for a prospectus pack and further information.

» Opening Times

Are you open during term time?

Opening Times

Saturday from 10-1pm at St mary Redcliffe & Temple Centre , from 2-5pm at Mangotsfield and Yate centres

» Your Service

Comments

By coming along to one of our classes, either people have seen an advertisement or we have been recommended. After a trial period we would then expect a full commitment, by turning up each week for lessons

» Waiting Lists

Do you have a waiting list?

No

Comments

At the moment we have a few places available at our St Mary Redcliffe and Mangotsfield Centres. However our new centre in Yate which opens February 6th 2010 we are actively recruiting and enrolling at the moment

» Costs

Are there any costs to the user for your service?

Costs

Fees are charged on a termly basis and are very competitive. We have three terms per year and these can be paid in installments. There is also a £10 enrolment fee. Other costs include a Theatretrain t-shirt/jazz shoes for dance classes. At performance time there is a cost for costumes and transport when appearing in the West End.
