About Us

This is a Secondary school for ages 11-18. Compulsory GCSE subjects for 11-16 years are English, maths and science. Other subjects are offered. Religious education and sex education are taught but students can choose to remove their child from these subjects. There is a range of after-school activities. The council provides free transport and free school meals if students meet the council requirements. The council recommends that you contact each one for further details.
