About Us

Briarwood is a split site school in Bristol for students with severe learning difficulty. The Briarway Centre caters for our primary age students-2-11 years. The Briarfield Centre is home to our secondary age students and is attached to Whitefield Fishponds Community School. It takes ages 11-19. All students should have access to as much of the national curriculum for their age group as possible. The council provides free transport to and from school (where appropriate) and free school meals if students meet the council requirements.
